LITERARY EVENTS HIGHLIGHT

Literary Treasures of Ventura County named as first step towards seeking nominees for Poet Laureate of Ventura County

Polly Bee (87), Elnora McNaughton (94), Doris Vernon (88) and Joyce La Mers (92) were recently named Literary Treasures of Ventura County for their long-standing contributions to the literary arts and poetry in particular. Honoring these poets was the first step in a new VCAC initiative to highlight poetry in Ventura County. The second step involves you! The Arts Council advisory committee is seeking nominees for the title of Poet Laureate of Ventura County. The intent is to have the poet named by the end of 2013 so he or she can begin their two-year term beginning in 2014. Review guidelines and submit worthy nominees at www.venturacountyartscouncil.org

About San Buenaventura City Hall / Old Ventura County Court House

One of the most beautiful civic structures in California, this State of California Historical Landmark, now a century old, is noted for its gleaming terra cotta exterior, copper sheathed dome, elegant Italian marble foyer, coffered ceilings and paneled Council Chambers. Designed in Beaux Arts style by legendary architect Albert C. Martin and completed in 1913 as the Ventura County Court House, the historic building was restored in 1971 and 1988 to become Ventura's City Hall.

VISUAL ARTS CALENDAR

New public art to be dedicated on Ventura Avenue July 11

Join Ventura Mayor Mike Tracy for the unveiling of our city's newest public art work, "Wall Play," (pictured at left) installed at the Ventura Avenue Adult Center (VAAC), 550 N. Ventura Ave., on Thursday, July 11, at 3 pm. Local artist Helle Scharling-Todd also recently completed two new mosaic murals, "Seashells" and "Seaweed" on the Beachfront Promenade (pictured right). The artist worked with the Westside Community Council, Ventura County Arts Council and City's Public Art Commission to generate support and funding to realize her proposal to enhance the VAAC. For two decades she has created beautiful mosaics that grace several city facilities including the Barranca Vista Center, Olivas Adobe, and 420 East Santa Clara Street (Urban Encore, formerly a city senior center), in addition to her public art commission Westside Stories on Ventura and Stanley Avenues.

City of Ventura Sponsors July 20-21 Ventura ArtWalk

Renowned Muralist MB Hanrahan to Participate in ArtWalk PODS® Project

The City of Ventura has had a long history working with community artists and as the founder Ventura ArtWalk in 1992 is excited to see how the event is continuing to evolve under the leadership of the all-volunteer ArtWalk committee now leading the helm. On July 20 and 21 the twenty-first ArtWalk will take place in Ventura's Downtown Cultural District and on the city's Westside, bringing artists, residents and tourists together to experience Ventura's unique art scene. This year's event will feature 16 pop-up galleries situated in PODS® containers, donated for the event by Your Local PODS® Service Provider and owner Steve Yapp. Muralist MB Hanrahan in partnership with the City of Ventura, Bell Arts Factory and Vita Art Center worked with community youth and volunteers to create a work of art out of one of the PODS® container focused on honeybees, pollination, interdependence of Ventura Co. agriculture, foliculture and bees, and the underlying threat of hive collapse. Hanrahan says, "I see the direct connection between art studios and beehives, art studios as a hive of creativity, a place for the pollination of ideas". The completed PODS® container will be on display in east Ventura along the Victoria corridor June 20th-July 18th and then relocated to the intersection of Main and California Streets for ArtWalk weekend. Since 1991, the City of Ventura has sponsored both temporary and permanent public art installations throughout the community and showcasing the works of Ventura County artists in the Municipal Art Collection on display at City Hall. The gallery will be open for tours of the collection Saturday, July 20th between 12-4 PM. The Municipal Art Collection contains over 90 works by regional masters. The collection includes works by John Nava, Beatrice Wood, Horace Bristol, Cornelis and Jessie Arms Botke. Housed in historic City Hall, itself a magnificent work of architecture by Albert C. Martin, which will be celebrating its centennial anniversary on July 25th with the dedication of a new commissioned sculpture created by Matthew Furmanski.

Author Gary Kurutz speaks about City Hall's historic Terra Cotta on July 25

Gary Kurutz, author of The Architectural Terra Cotta of Gladding, McBean will speak on the history of the company who created the tiles, including the monk heads for City Hall and other prominent buildings in conjunction with the City Hall Centennial celebration, Thursday, July 25, 2- 3 pm, in the Community Meeting Room of Ventura City Hall, 501 Poli Street. The free workshop will deepen your appreciation for the architectural beauty of City Hall, For more information contact Jared Rosengren at (805) 658-4737 or email jrosengren@cityofventura.net. Check out www.cityofventura.net/cityhallcentennial for other centennial events. Charles Johnson, Museum of Ventura County librarian, will speak on the history of this national historic place of interest.

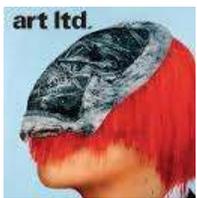

City Hall's Centenary Sculpture by Matthew Furmanski is unveiled July 25 at 4 pm

The unveiling of a new commemorative public art sculpture by Matthew Furmanski at Ventura City Hall caps a month-long centennial celebration of this historic building on Thursday, July 25, 2013 at 4 pm – outdoors on the front patio of the City Hall Atrium at 501 Poli Street. The formal dedication marks the one hundred year anniversary of the official opening of the former courthouse. Early in 2013 the City of Ventura Public Art Commission looked to commemorate centenary of landmark building that is now San Buenaventura City Hall by commissioning a new public sculpture as a permanent work in the Municipal Art Collection displayed at City Hall. The commissioners requested the new artwork have an historic twist and use original marble slab or white glazed terra cotta – salvaged during the building's 1974 restoration and conversion from courthouse to city hall – to celebrate a majestic building rich in detail and materials both inside and out. The Commission selected from several proposals one by Matthew Furmanski, a professor of art and sculpture at California State University at Channel Islands (CSUCI). The artist with a Masters of Fine Art, Sculpture from Claremont Graduate University (CA) is internationally known for his conceptual sculpture. His works combine "physicality" with "the intensity of an idea to create a catalyst" for "imaginative leaps in the minds of those who encounter them." For his winning concept called Spolia the artist proposed a five-foot assembled sculpture he calls “a contemporary representation of a pillar, or a column, made partially from (3) recycled terracotta tiles” and “a sculptural framework, like a setting for a gemstone, and the terracotta being like the gems set in it.” Spolia is a modern art historical term. Spolia (Latin, “spoils”) is the re-use of earlier building material or decorative sculpture on new monuments. “I find the metaphor of a pillar or column invigorating for what institutions represent in our society. Pillars and columns have long been a symbol of strength and longevity,” said the artist. “Think of my pillar/column as an exploded drawing (DaVinci-esque), with each of the important elements of the column – capital, finial, main post, trunk and base – standing as a metaphor. This is, after all, a work of art meant to commemorate the 100-year anniversary of the building, and institution. I would like Spolia to function as both a work of art and a commemorative object.” For more information contact: Community Partnerships Manager Denise Sindelar at 805/658-4793 or dsindelar@cityofventura.net.

Ventura County Ballet Company’s (VCBC) DANCE ART, a traveling dance ensemble composed of the company’s finest ballet dancers, and Focus on the Masters (FOTM), a non-profit art appreciation program that documents, preserves and presents the works and lives of accomplished contemporary artists, will combine its talents to introduce a unique, awe-inspiring, one-time event called “Convergence” that will kick-off the annual ArtWalk Ventura on Friday, July 19. A first-of-its-kind concept masterminded by nationally recognized photographer and FOTM Founder Donna

Granata, “Convergence” will be a live, multimedia benefit performance event featuring dance, music and fine art at its best, celebrating the spirit of collaboration and a shared passion for the arts. Downtown Ventura’s location at 20 N. Oak St., made available by owner Robert Gurfield, will set the stage for the event that will combine the skills of accomplished ballet dancers, renowned visual artists, an expert choreographer and world-renowned classical musicians. The audience will be captivated by a beautifully choreographed dance piece from Brett Weidlich and performed by VCBC’s DANCE ART as projections of paintings by ArtWalk Artist of Distinction and FOTM-documented painter Gerd Koch bathe the dancers in expressionistic color and texture. Providing the music for the performance will be two-time Grammy-nominated international composer and pianist Miguel del Aguila, who will premiere “Silence,” his newest composition for piano and violin which he will perform with celebrated violinist Yue Deng. Attendees will also enjoy an art exhibition featuring artists’ works that have been documented in the FOTM program that will be showcased throughout the weekend, as well as a live auction featuring Granata’s exquisite photographs of the dancers and other unique items. All proceeds from the event will benefit FOTM’s educational outreach programs. “This unique performance embodies everything the ArtWalk represents – world-class artistry at its finest,” Granata said. “We’re so proud to showcase this unique alliance of extraordinary artists with the unmatched talents of our international musicians. ‘Convergence’ will be an affair to remember.”

BiJian Fan & Petty Pownall “Stories to Keep, Secrets to Tell” Art Show July 11 - Sept 14

An artists’ reception will be Saturday, July 13, 6- 9 pm

BiJian Fan was born in Beijing, China where he learned paper art from his grandmother. Fan now resides in Camarillo where he creates cutting-edge sculpture in metal, polymer and other materials. He explores aesthetic and physical properties of various materials, transforming 2D static material into 3D kinetic sculptures (his “Year of the Snake” pictured at right). Peggy Pownall (her continued her studies at the Studio Art Centers International in Florence, Italy. She became an Artist-In-Residence at Studio Channel Islands Art Center in Camarillo in 2008, and has taught art in Thousand Oaks for many years. Pownall's work incorporates mixed media, often stitching and layering old sewing patterns from bygone eras, revealing old brand names and drawings from the packages. Her current body of work references the traditional feminine world and the concept of creating order out of life's chaos.

Gerd Koch Exhibit Jul 5-27

The exhibition of ArtWalk Ventura's 2013 "Artist of Distinction" features work from 1959-2013 and will include a milestone painting series with examples from the 1959 Ojai period, one of which received the First and Purchase Award at the LACMA Art Annual (artists from S.B. to S.D.). This period is still of interest to U.S. collectors. Also there will be an Ojai painting from the "A view from the window series" inspired by MATISSE and created for Koch's MFA degree from U.C.S.B., in 1967. Koch was a Teaching Assistant to a visiting German Prof. who graduated from the last class in 1934 of the famous BAUHAUS German art school.

ArtWalk Ventura • July 20/21, 2013

Artwalk Ventura is a free, self-guided tour of dozens of galleries, studios and pop-up venues in Ventura's Westside Cultural District and Downtown. The National Gallery, London, is offering a major exhibition on one of the most startling and fascinating artists of all-time, Johannes Vermeer, most popularly known as the painter of "The Girl with a Pearl Earring." Vermeer painted little more than 30 works that still exist, and the National Gallery has chosen to focus on his art in relation to music. The event goes beyond the exhibition to tell the entire story of Vermeer's life and, in doing so, shows in detail many other of the artist's great works. The program will suit the wide audience who adore Vermeer's work and who want both to see it in detail and to learn more about this mysterious, fascinating man.

Rubicon Theatre Company Summer Youth Theatre Programs offers a new class that explores the famous “method” acting technique

Information: Jessica Savoy (805) 667-2912, ext. 230 outreach@rubicontheatre.org

Rubicon Theatre Company will offer a new acting class taught by professional actor Jonathan Drahos. This program, entitled The Acting Intensive, will be the newest addition to Rubicon’s extensive offering of summer educational workshops. Now celebrating their 11th year, these programs have focused on developing skills and techniques such as: basic theatre terminology, confidence building, stage presence, proper voice techniques, developing an awareness of body language through character work, and other fundamental techniques through improvisation, scene study and theatre games. Nearly 100 students each year have participated with nearly 60% of them receiving some form of financial assistance. The Summer Acting Intensive will open students up to discover creative, inspired acting choices, using the “method” techniques of Lee Strasberg, Sanford Meisner and Uta Hagen. They will learn how to use movement, voice, and heightened “actions” to bring a scene to life. These unique techniques give actors a “tool kit” to use when approaching a variety of texts from Neil Simon to William Shakespeare. With a limited class size of 12, this course offers close interaction and individual attention. The workshop will culminate in a final presentation of the students’ work for family and friends. The tuition for the class is $310 and is open for ages 17 and up. The class will meet for eight 3-hour sessions from July 22 to August 14. Classes will be held at Rubicon Theatre Company on Mondays and Wednesdays from 6pm to 9pm. For more information and to register online, please visit the Education and Outreach section of www.rubicontheatre.org. The registration deadline is July 17, 2013. JONATHAN DRAHOS has been dedicated to professional acting and directing and to the theoretical, historical and performative study of classical and contemporary theatre for the past twenty-five years. As an actor, he has worked in all media including Broadway, Off-Broadway, television and feature films. As artistic director of the Uprising Theatre Company -- and as an independent director -- he has extensive experience directing and vocal coaching a wide range of styles and periods, including Shakespeare and Musical Theatre. Since joining the Rubicon staff last summer, Jonathan has directed the Theatre Camp musical Captain Louie Jr. and served as the Dramaturge/Verse Coach for the Fearless Shakespeare production of As You Like It, as well as the upcoming Romeo and Juliet. He is a Stanislavski-based acting and directing teacher and has broad experience with the Alexander movement technique, stage combat, and Linklater-based voice and dialect techniques. Jonathan holds a B.A. and M.F.A. in acting and directing, as well as a Ph.D. in Drama, Shakespearean and Marlovian Narrative Verse Acting from the University of Birmingham, UK. He was recently published in the Shakespeare Institute Review Journal and currently teaches courses in Acting/Voice/Movement in Theatre, Audition Technique, Theatre Ideology and The American Musical Theatre at the University of Worcester, UK. Previously, Jonathan spent three years teaching Shakespeare, Early Modern British Theatre History and 17th Century Literature at California State University, Northridge.

Ventura County Ballet Company’s (VCBC) DAnce ART, a traveling dance ensemble composed of the company’s finest ballet dancers, and Focus on the Masters (FOTM), a non-profit art appreciation program that documents, preserves and presents the works and lives of accomplished contemporary artists, will combine its talents to introduce a unique, awe-inspiring, one-time event called “Convergence” that will kick-off the annual ArtWalk Ventura on Friday, July 19. A first-of-its-kind concept masterminded by nationally recognized photographer and FOTM Founder Donna Granata, “Convergence” will be a live, multimedia benefit performance event featuring dance, music and fine art at its best, celebrating the spirit of collaboration and a shared passion for the arts. Downtown Ventura’s location at 20 N. Oak St., made available by owner Robert Gurfield, will set the stage for the event that will combine the skills of accomplished ballet dancers, renowned visual artists, an expert choreographer and world-renowned classical musicians. The audience will be captivated by a beautifully choreographed dance piece from Brett Weidlich and performed by VCBC’s DAnce ART as projections of paintings by ArtWalk Artist of Distinction and FOTM-documented painter Gerd Koch bathe the dancers in expressionistic color and texture. Providing the music for the performance will be two-time Grammy-nominated international composer and pianist Miguel del Aguila, who will premiere “Silence,” his newest composition for piano and violin which he will perform with celebrated violinist Yue Deng. Attendees will also enjoy an art exhibition featuring artists’ works that have been documented in the FOTM program that will be showcased throughout the weekend, as well as a live auction featuring Granata’s exquisite photographs of the dancers and other unique items. All proceeds from the event will benefit FOTM’s educational outreach programs. “This unique performance embodies everything the ArtWalk represents – world-class artistry at its finest,” Granata said. “We’re so proud to showcase this unique alliance of extraordinary artists with the unmatched talents of our international musicians. ‘Convergence’ will be an affair to remember.”

Oct. 28 Golden Dragon Acrobats, Fred Kavli Theatre, Gr. k-12, 9:30 and 11:15

The Golden Dragon Acrobats represent the best of a time honored tradition that began more than twenty-five centuries ago. The Golden Dragons are recognized throughout the United States and abroad as the premiere Chinese acrobatic touring company of today.

Nov. 1 Metales M5 at the Scherr Theatre

Metales M5 is Mexico's leading brass quintet. Since its founding in 2005 in Morelia, Michoacán, the five gentlemen have been playing a wide variety of music without regard to genre: Baroque and contemporary music, opera and blues, pop, movie soundtracks and folk music from Spain, Mexico, and other Latin American countries. In their concert, M5 takes students on a musical journey around the world and through different eras across time. How can you play on a garden hose? Why does a piccolo trumpet sound so high? What is the difference between a Canon and a Fugue? Why German folk music does sound so Mexican?

Jan. 21 I am Jack (bullying)/ @ Fred Kavli Theatre, Gr. 2-6. 9:30 and 11:15 am

Jack is a smart, funny, 11 year old boy who's being badly bullied at school. What starts as an off-the-cuff joke during a handball competition soon turns into a set of circumstances whereby Jack is no longer safe on the playground. But with the use of self-expression through photography, Jack begins to make sense of his world, of his relationships with others, and most importantly, with himself. This excellent show explores the often-overlooked insidious taunting and teasing that bullies are so adept at inflicting on their victims and the roles that family and schools can play in responding to this topic.

Feb. 19 Stuart Little by Dallas Children's Theatre Company, @ Fred Kavli Theatre/, 9,K-5, 9:30 and 11:15

All the charm, wisdom and joy of E.B. Whites classic novel are brought to life as the mild mannered mouse Stuart Little learns to survive in his super-sized world of humans and discovers the true meaning of family, loyalty, and friendship.

March 6 Four Score and Seven Years Ago/ Artspower,Gr. 3-8@ Scherr Forum Theatre, 9:30 and 11:15

To young Lemuel, who has escaped slavery in Georgia, life in Gettysburg is everything he had dreamed it would be. His ideas about the North and the South, as well as what it means to be a free man, are challenged, however, when he unexpectedly befriends Jacob, a young Confederate soldier. The two men may be of different races and on different sides of the Civil War, but they have much to teach each other about bravery and loyalty in ArtsPower's exciting and suspenseful musical.

March 7 Peter Pan/TheatreworksUSA,Gr. 1-5, Fred Kavli,9:30 am

Peter Pan is an adapted version of J.M. Barrie's classic tale created by John Caird and Trevor Nunn. This production encourages children to let their imaginations take "flight" and to create their own adventures using household objects as props and puppets as characters. (Approximately one-hour in length, recommended for grades 1 - 5)

March 14 Great Mountain/Gr. 1-6. Scherr Forum Theatre, 9:30 and 11:15

The Great Mountain is an adventure story that inspires, entertains and captures the imagination of students.. Young Nuna has started to hear things she can't figure out. Realizing she has inherited the ability to hear the spirits of rushing rivers and soaring mountains, Nuna's grandmother takes her to the river and entrusts her to a boatman who brings her to where a glacier is melting and the spirit of a great mountain weeps. Does Nuna have the power to answer the mountain's cry? In this re-telling of the Native American story of Jumping Mouse, a young girl discovers the transformative power of nature and the importance of courage. Canada's leading aboriginal theater and dance company, Red Sky blends traditional story and mask work with contemporary music.

Urinetown

Book and Lyrics by Greg Kotis - Music and Lyrics by Mark Hollmann - Directed by Brian McDonald - Musical Direction by Miriam Arichea

Winner of three Tony awards and one of the most uproariously funny musicals in recent years, Urinetown is a hilarious tale of greed, corruption, love, and revolution in a time when water is worth its weight in gold. In a Gotham-like city, a terrible water shortage, caused by a 20-year drought, has led to a government-enforced ban on private toilets. The citizens must use public amenities, regulated by a single malevolent company that profits by charging admission for one of humanity's most basic needs. Amid the people, a hero decides he's had enough, and plans a revolution to lead them all to freedom! Inspired by the works of Bertolt Brecht and Kurt Weill, Urinetown is an irreverently humorous satire in which no one is safe from scrutiny. Praised for reinvigorating the very notion of what a musical could be, Urinetown catapults the "comedic romp" into the new millennium with its outrageous perspective, wickedly modern wit, and sustained ability to produce gales of unbridled laughter.

Ventura seeks program partners and schedule ideas by September 2013 for the Big Read

In March residents will take up Tim O'Brien's account of returning war veterans "The Things They Carried" as part of Ventura's 2nd "Big Read," thanks to a $7,500 NEA grant. The City of Ventura Department of Parks, Recreation & Community Partnership proposal in partnership with the Ventura County Library was one of only 77 nonprofit organizations the National Endowment for the Arts selected to fund as hosts for The Big Read program in FY 2013-14. "We are seeking community partners and innovative ways to engage our community to read this still-relevant-today collection of stories exploring the experiences of young soldiers at war and their adjustment difficulties upon returning home," said Community Partnerships Manager Denise Sindelar. "Please contact me at dsindelar@cityofventura.net with programming ideas and their cost for discussion. The Big Read schedule will be set at a fall community meeting.

Literary Treasures of Ventura County named as first step towards seeking nominees for Poet Laureate of Ventura County

Polly Bee (87), Elnora McNaughton (94), Doris Vernon (88) and Joyce La Mers (92) were recently named Literary Treasures of Ventura County for their long-standing contributions to the literary arts and poetry in particular. Honoring these poets was the first step in a new VCAC initiative to highlight poetry in Ventura County. The second step involves you! The Arts Council advisory committee is seeking nominees for the title of Poet Laureate of Ventura County. The intent is to have the poet named by the end of 2013 so he or she can begin their two-year term beginning in 2014. Review guidelines and submit worthy nominees at www.venturacountyartscouncil.org

• Oct 10 @ 7:30 pm Exhibition Great Art on Screen "Vermeer"

The National Gallery, London, is offering a major exhibition on one of the most startling and fascinating artists of all-time, Johannes Vermeer, most popularly known as the painter of "The Girl with a Pearl Earring." Vermeer painted little more than 30 works that still exist, and the National Gallery has chosen to focus on his art in relation to music. The event goes beyond the exhibition to tell the entire story of Vermeer's life and, in doing so, shows in detail many other of the artist's great works. The program will suit the wide audience who adore Vermeer's work and who want both to see it in detail and to learn more about this mysterious, fascinating man.

Enter 2013 Water: Take 1 Online Short Film Contest by September 3

Water-focused short films are being accepted immediately at www.watertake1.com to be entered into the 2013 Water: Take 1 Online Short Film Contest. Presented for a second year by Ventura Water and partners, Patagonia and iThentic, the film contest and outreach campaign highlights our relationship with water through imagination, education and entertainment. The contest will close on September 3, 2013 with ten finalists named. A jury-awarded Grand Prize of $1,500, sponsored by Patagonia, will be presented to the Grand Prize Winner at an event hosted by Brooks Institute of Photography later this fall. The jury will also select an entry filmed in Ventura, California for the new Ventura Vision Award, sponsored by the Crowne Plaza Ventura Beach, as well as a recipient of the special Best Student Short Film Award. Viewers visiting the website will have an opportunity to "vote" for their favorite entry online and the film with the most votes will receive the Audience Choice Award, sponsored by EJ Harrison and Sons. The outreach elements connected to Water: Take 1 will encourage people to rethink how water is used, especially outdoors. Since 40-60% of urban water is used for landscaping, more education will help customers rethink water use by promoting irrigation system efficiency, management and new technology. Details about how to submit any recent short film (less than five minutes long) that addresses the topic of water in any genre may be found at www.watertake1.com. To learn more, watch videos about Water: Take 1 at www.youtube.com/venturawater.

History And Hollywood Meet At Museum's Latest Exhibits

Fans of Hollywood films and celebrities will enjoy the newest exhibits opening at the Museum of Ventura County. "Shooting For the Stars: Celebrity Photographs by Guy Webster" and "Quiet on the Set! A Century of Film in Ventura County" opened June 2. Guy Webster, a resident of Ojai has had a stellar career in photography for the past 40 years. The Museum of Ventura County is bringing Webster back after a two-year hiatus for an exhibit of some of his never-before-seen celebrity shots. Quiet on the Set! will focus on the films that were shot in Ventura County and the county's connection to Hollywood. The exhibit also takes a look at where audiences went to the movies and the history behind some of the local theaters. A highlight of this exhibit will be the museum's sculpture gallery, which will be transformed into a mini Art Deco-inspired theater screening film shorts during the run of the exhibit, ending on August 25, 2013.

Museum of Ventura County offers new evening Salon Series starting July 26

Get up close and personal with renowned celebrity photographer Guy Webster at the inaugural event in the Museum's new Salon Series. Enjoy wine and hors d'oeuvres in the gallery featuring his exhibit, "Shooting for the Stars: Celebrity Photographs." Then gather round as Guy shares his personal and intimate memories of the film and television stars, who were often both subjects and friends, he photographed during his long career. This Salon Series will be held on Friday, July 26 at 7:00 p.m. $45 for non-members and $35 for Museum members with seating is limited to 50 guests.

MOVC AGRICULTURE MUSEUM EXHIBITS AND EVENTS

The Santa Paula museum near the train depot and railroad tracks permanently exhibits farm implements used in the extensive agriculture industry in the county with special exhibits of clothing and accessories from the 18th century to the present, and textiles such as quilts and other household linens, flags and banners, furniture and other decorative arts from local families, plus many other types of objects, including toys, medical equipment, tools, musical instruments, office equipment, and saddles and tack.

Studio Channel Islands Art Center Founder Roxie Ray Gives Gallery Talk July 11

The first artist to establish a studio at Studio Channel Islands Art Center, and one of the center's original founders in 1998, will speak at the Agriculture Museum on July 11 at 2:00 p.m. Artist Roxie Ray will talk about her artistic journey, from credentialed social worker to full-time painter, during the Museum's monthly Second Thursday Gallery Talk. As she walks with visitors through the Museum's Reiter Visitors Center and Calavo Hall, she will also talk about her current solo exhibition of paintings called, "Value of Work." These monumental canvases of laborers at work in Ventura County fields bring viewers' attention to the valuable contribution made by farm workers. Admission to the Gallery Talk is free for Museum members and is included with regular admission for the general public. Another Second Thursday Gallery Talk will take place at the Santa Paula Art Museum, located one block away, at 3:00 p.m. Free parking is available at both locations.

"From Field to Factory: Oxnard's Beet Generation" exhibit through August 11

The museum's new exhibit will include never-before-exhibited photographs of the American Beet Sugar Factory in Oxnard, which was the world's second largest beet sugar producer upon completion in 1898, and tales of the boom town that sprang up practically overnight around the factory. The photographs illustrate the rise of one of Ventura County's most important historical crops: Sugar beets. A beet wagon fully restored by Santa Paula resident, Richard Cummings, will be on display. Artifacts from the factory, as well as tools from of the beet trade, will also be on display. Image: Cultivating Oxnard Sugar Beets; MVC Research Library Collection.

Ventura seeks program partners and schedule ideas by September 2013 for the Big Read

In March residents will take up Tim O'Brien's account of returning war veterans "The Things They Carried" as part of Ventura's 2nd "Big Read," thanks to a $7,500 NEA grant. The City of Ventura Department of Parks, Recreation & Community Partnership proposal in partnership with the Ventura County Library was one of only 77 nonprofit organizations the National Endowment for the Arts selected to fund as hosts for The Big Read program in FY 2013-14. "We are seeking community partners and innovative ways to engage our community to read this still-relevant-today collection of stories exploring the experiences of young soldiers at war and their adjustment difficulties upon returning home," said Community Partnerships Manager Denise Sindelar. "Please contact me at dsindelar@cityofventura.net with programming ideas and their cost for discussion. The Big Read schedule will be set at a fall community meeting.

2013 Mayor's Arts Awards applications due August 8

The City of Ventura celebrates its vibrant arts community at the eighth annual MAYOR'S ARTS AWARDS. Established in 2005, the Mayor's Arts Awards recognize the contributions to the cultural community by city residents, artists, educators, organizations and business leaders. The goal of this program is to help cultivate greater visibility and understanding of the value of the arts, as well as grow new leadership and new patrons of the arts. Nominations must be received at the Parks, Recreation & Community Partnerships Department by 5:00 pm, Thursday, August 8, 2013. To download the application, visit <http://www.cityofventura.net/maa>.

Enter 2013 Water: Take 1 Online Short Film Contest by September 3

Water-focused short films are being accepted immediately at www.watertake1.com to be entered into the 2013 Water: Take 1 Online Short Film Contest. Presented for a second year by Ventura Water and partners, Patagonia and iThentic, the film contest and outreach campaign highlights our relationship with water through imagination, education and entertainment. The contest will close on September 3, 2013 with ten finalists named. A jury-awarded Grand Prize of $1,500, sponsored by Patagonia, will be presented to the Grand Prize Winner at an event hosted by Brooks Institute of Photography later this fall. The jury will also select an entry filmed in Ventura, California for the new Ventura Vision Award, sponsored by the Crowne Plaza Ventura Beach, as well as a recipient of the special Best Student Short Film Award. Viewers visiting the website will have an opportunity to “vote” for their favorite entry online and the film with the most votes will receive the Audience Choice Award, sponsored by EJ Harrison and Sons. The outreach elements connected to Water: Take 1 will encourage people to rethink how water is used, especially outdoors. Details about how to submit any recent short film (less than five minutes long) that addresses the topic of water in any genre may be found at www.watertake1.com. To learn more, watch videos about Water: Take 1 at www.youtube.com/venturawater.

RFP for Coastal Community Cancer Center submission due Sept 19

The City of Ventura Public Art Program in partnership with Community Memorial Hospital invites area artists to submit proposals by September 19 to exhibit original art at the Coastal Communities Cancer Center on Loma Vista between Brent and Joanne Streets. The primary goal of the artwork is to inspire residents and visiting patients alike with the inspirational qualities of art. The gallery spaces at the facility, situated in the lighted glass windows on three exterior walls, provide an exceptional gallery space for rotating exhibits. Each rotation will exhibit the work of three artists, one for each side of the facility. Selected works will be on display for a period of three months per rotation. Proposals accepted year round: deadline for this cycle is September 19. Contact Public Art Project Manager Tobie Roach at 805-658-4759 or troach@cityofventura.net. Click URL below for RFQ:

ArtsMarketing.org The website of the National Arts Marketing Project, provides information, tools, and practical ideas to design high-quality, cost-effective marketing programs and strengthen arts organizations. Our Advisory Committee provides expert guidance and constantly seeks new resources and information to keep the site relevant and useful.

National Arts Marketing Project produces an annual conference, hosts monthly webinars, organizes regional training programs, and provides on-site workshops on a range of arts marketing topics. The National Arts Marketing Project is a program of Americans for the Arts. Download a quick one-sheet of all our arts marketing and audience engagement resources.

Americans for the Arts is the nation's leading nonprofit organization for advancing the arts in America. With more than 50 years of service, we are dedicated to representing and serving local communities and creating opportunities for every American to participate in and appreciate all forms of the arts. With offices in Washington, DC and New York City, and more than 300,000 organizational and individual members and stakeholders across the country, the focus is on 3 primary goals:

1. Lead and serve individuals and organizations to help build environments in which the arts and arts education thrive and contribute to more vibrant and creative communities.
2. Generate meaningful public and private sector policies and more leaders and resources for the arts and arts education.
3. Build individual awareness and appreciation of the value of the arts and arts education.
