Adobe...*

The Olivas Adobe has been the ideal site for weddings, receptions and fiestas since 1847, when wealthy Don Raymundo Olivas built this lovely and serene home. For over 150 years, its hospitable and expansive courtyard and grounds have been the atmospheric center of grand parties for prosperous ranchers, business owners, charity balls and family gatherings celebrating every kind of milestone from anniversaries, to birthdays, and from family reunions to couples exchanging vows in beautiful surroundings.

Just minutes away from the Pacific Ocean, the historic Olivas Adobe stands as a reminder of California's rich heritage, and provides a unique location for parties, receptions and weddings.

Listed on the State Register of Historic Places, this beautiful hacienda is a romantic and warmly welcoming site for nuptials year-round and all special occasions for families, businesses and charity functions. The site offers three different areas to host your event.

You may choose from the beauty of the rose garden where a bubbling fountain casts a Spanish atmosphere over any gathering.

Or select the warmth of the grand courtyard beneath the ornate bell archway. (The archway is pictured on the front cover.)

You might prefer the rustic intimacy of the century old Grape Arbor where rugged vines trace their roots to the Mission Fathers and one of the oldest fuschias in the world still blossoms.

The grounds provide many settings for photography from our lush herb garden to a grove of towering Eucalyptus trees.
