PART 1 - Get Your Bike Ready to Ride!

Learn all the important aspects of basic and responsible bike maintenance: fixing flats, ABC quick check, bike fit and some safety considerations.

Hosted at Ventura City Hall, 501 Poli St., Anacapa Conference Room (no bike is necessary)

PART 2 - Become a Confident Rider!

Understand your rights & responsibilities as a driver operating a bicycle safely and legally on public roadways. Most importantly, develop the ability to identify unsafe traffic situations and make decisions that can prevent crashes and collisions.

Hosted at Ventura City Hall, 501 Poli St., Anacapa Conference Room (no bike is necessary)

PART 3 - Bike Handling Skills & Group Ride

On Saturday morning, the group meets at the parking lot behind Ventura City Hall to practice handling skills on the blacktop for a couple hours. Learn to use the City's green bike lanes and bike boxes as you enjoy a group ride around Ventura with your League Cycling Instructor.

Meet in the parking lot behind Ventura City Hall, at the 505 Poli Street back entrance. (Only participants who attended the Part 2 "Become a Confident Rider" class may join the group ride.) REMINDER: A bike in working condition and a helmet are required.
